My dear Sir

The bearer of this note is a learned friend of mine, Professor Mommson, Rector of the College at Oldenburg. He wishes for an opportunity of consulting the Catalogues and Books in the Bodleian library, over which you have so long presided, and in which you have on divers occasions given me such kind facilities. If you will now do the same by my highly accomplished co-critic upon Shakespeare, you will confer upon me a singular favour.

If you happen not to be in the Bodleian, I have asked Professor Mommsen to show this note to any of your assistants, as his time is necessarily very limited. I am

My dear Sir,
Yours most faithfully & much obliged
